Definition

Walking, hiking and mountain trails are footpaths of public interest for the purpose of walking, running or climbing, are located in any kind of landscapes, are visible and clearly recognisable in the terrain, and are physically marked and signposted.

In Europe, walking, hiking and mountain trails are part of the network of trails under the umbrella of one of the two European NGOs: the European Union of Mountaineering Associations (EUMA) and the European Ramblers' Association (ERA).

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union
